Nominees for ACT representative crews must be registered members of Rowing ACT, and must agree to abide by the Rowing Australia Code of Conduct. Rowers and coxswains selected for the final crews will be entitled to purchase (at cost) a Rowing ACT representative racing suit.

Selection Process:

Selection events will be determined by the Selection Panel and may include:

- 1000m Ergometer Test;
- 1000m Single Scull or Pair Time Trial;
- trial in an VIII for top 12 VIII nominees.

Selectors for the 2007 Australian Masters rowing Championships are:

- Darrell Ninham milsatcom1@bigpond.com
- David Bagnall davidbagnall7@gmail.com
- Selector's Assistant – Suzanne Goddard
suzanne.goddard@radford.act.edu.au

Please direct selection questions to either Darrell or David.

The Selectors will rank rowers performances in the nominated events taking account of the gold medal standards for each boat category, as determined by Rowing Australia. The Rowing ACT Masters Selectors will determine the priority men's and women's crews, and squads for these crews on this basis. The Selectors will also pay due regard to ages to ensure an average crew age of at least 50 years.

Crew seating will remain the responsibility of the Selectors.

The Selectors may require further trialling of the selected squads before the final crews are determined.

In the selection of coxswains, the Selectors will take into account the recommendation of the selected crew, past and present performance in training and competition, weight, and steering ability.

Exemptions from any part of the selection process must be approved in advance by the Selectors.

Selectors will notify the Rowing ACT Management Committee of the selected crews as soon as practicable for endorsement.

Appeals:

In the advent of a selection dispute, an individual may request the Rowing ACT Executive to review the selection. This is to be done in writing to the Rowing ACT Executive Officer not more than 48 hours after receiving official notification of a decision from the Selectors.

The Rowing ACT Executive shall act as arbiter in any disputes or protests relating to the selection of ACT representative masters crews for the interstate races.

The decision of the Rowing ACT Executive in any disputes or protests submitted to it shall be accepted as final and binding by all concerned. The Rowing ACT Executive will endeavour to have any disputes resolved as quickly as possible.
